Acknowledgment of the Manuscript Reviewers
Songklanakarin Journal of Science and Technology
Volume 28 (Supplementary 1), 2006

Songklanakarin J. Sci. Technol. Vol. 28 (Suppl. 1), 2006 has received generous assistance from colleagues in many institutions who, with their expertise in the fields of biotechnology, food science, nutrition, pharmacy, and science, undertook to review the many manuscripts submitted for publication by the participants of the 10th World Congress on Clinical Nutrition. Their efforts help raise the scientific standard of the Journal making it well recognized internationally and cited widely, with high Journal Impact Factor (JIF). The Journal has also enjoyed high Journal Immediacy Index (JII) because of these experts’ selfless efforts. Beside upholding the high academic standard of the Journal, they have helped raise the level of scientific knowledge and promote the academic atmosphere that will enhance the reputation of Prince of Songkla University as a place of higher learning and research.

Therefore, Prince of Songkla University wishes to gratefully acknowledge the contributions of these expert reviewers whose names are hereby listed.
